SINTE GLESKA UNIVERSITY

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Sinte Gleska University
System of Care Expansion
Tiwahe Glu Kini Pi
“Bringing the Family Back to Life”

POSITION: Child and Family Therapist
DEPARTMENT: TGKP

SUPERVISOR: TGKP Director
CONTRACT: 12 Month/Salary

Job Purpose Summary:

Will provide individual, family and group equine therapy for SOC Expansion population of children and families, in addition to direct services.

Key Responsibilities and Accountabilities:

The Child and Family Therapist manages a caseload of children and their families under the SOC expansion utilizing the Tiwahe Glu Kini Pi Lakota Mental Health Wraparound Model for treatment, integrating traditional ceremony and cultural practices, along with equine therapy and western therapy, wraparound care coordination and rehabilitation counseling as needed. Provides assessment, diagnosis, individual plan for care and treatment, therapy, referrals for services, aftercare and evaluation for eligible children. Maintains, at a minimum, bi-weekly face to face contact and up to date confidential case documentation (EHR.)

Qualifications:

Master’s degree in Psychology, Counseling, Family Therapy, Social work and 4 years of direct or relevant experience providing counseling/therapy to children with SEBD’s and caregivers, in the home or community based settings, preferably with the Lakota or other tribal nations. Must be licensed as LPC-MH or pursuing LPC-MH licensure.