

Sinte Gleska University
System of Care Expansion
Tiwahe Glu Kini Pi
“Bringing the Family Back to Life”

Job Description: Technical Assistance & Caregiver Recovery Room Coordinator Level of Effort: 50%

- Based at Sinte Gleska University Tiwahe Glu Kini Pi
- Position reports to the Project Director
- Job Purpose Summary: Serves as the central point within the System of Care for strategizing and assessing the technical assistance and cultural training needs of the community. Serves as the planner, organizer, and coordinator of these technical assistance/training needs and cultural and program events. Coordinates regalia/craft activities for the TGKP Caregiver Recovery Room.

Key Responsibilities and Accountabilities:

Technical Assistance areas may include cultural and linguist competent practices and services, trauma informed training and services, leadership, partnership, strategic planning, sustainability, family and youth involvement events and teaching regalia sewing, beadwork and craft activities in the TGKP Caregiver Recovery Room.

Qualifications:

Qualifications include a minimum of an Associate degree in Human Services, Education, Lakota Studies or Communications or a minimum of 3 years experience providing cultural and technical assistance under a systems change initiative. Must have experience making dance regalia , beading, sewing, etc. Must have excellent communication and organizational skills.