

English 101 Course Objectives

This is the first of a two course sequence designed to provide students with the skills necessary for college-level writing. In EN 101 students concentrate on paragraph and essay writing. Selected readings are part of the course. Required of all Freshmen.

Students will:

1. Demonstrate proper sentence structure and paragraph organization in a variety of essays.
2. Analyze assigned readings, including texts by Native American authors, to correctly identify various modes of writing.
3. Apply various modes of writing to draft and organize formal essays.
4. Utilize the writing process to write, revise, proofread, and publish formal essays.

English 102 Course Objectives

Freshman English 102 is an advanced composition course designed to sharpen students' writing, reading and critical thinking skills through a variety of college writing tasks. The course emphasizes improving students' ability to integrate and credit secondary sources in their writing. Prerequisite: EN 101

Students will:

1. Identify credible primary and secondary sources in print, in person and online.
2. Integrate information from a variety of credible sources into a cohesive written discourse.
3. Effectively communicate original ideas in written and oral form for an appropriate audience.
4. Critically analyze a topic of interest in a research paper utilizing APA or MLA format appropriately.
