

INYAN KAGA

MAY 31ST, 2025

Relatives are invited to travel to Inyan Kaga, 20 miles South of Sundance, Wyoming on Saturday May 31st, 2025 for annual ceremony and teachings facilitated by Ben Rhodd, Fred Little Bald Eagle and other spiritual leaders.

We will gather at 10:00am MT on May 31st, 2025 at the gas station/convenience store in Sundance, WY and proceed as a group to Inyan Kaga.

- A picnic lunch will follow at the city park in Sundance.
- Please remember good walking shoes and NO dogs. Walk is 3/4 of a mile long on rough terrain.
- Women be mindful of their moon as this is a ceremony.

This is a place of renewal and energy where the Tunkan Oyate (Inipi Stones) have been gathered for hundreds of years to be used for Inipi and Wiwang Wacipi. Inyan Kaga aka Inyan Kara means "Stone Maker" and is an ancient volcano. Every June for several years now we make the journey to this site.
